

Greenville Hospital System
Internal Medicine Residency Program
2015-2016

PGY-1

The first year resident is primary care physician for teaching service patients. Training during the first year emphasizes differential diagnosis, evaluation and therapy.

Medicine Teaching Service	16-20 weeks
Pulmonary Teaching Service	8 weeks
Ambulatory Clinic	8 weeks
ER	4 weeks
Electives	12-16 weeks*

PGY-2

The second year resident refines clinical skills by working as supervisor for the first year residents. They Continue to gain primary care experience in outpatient and subspecialty areas.

Medicine Teaching Service	12-16 weeks
Critical Care Teaching Service	12 weeks
Cardiology Teaching Service	4 weeks
Ambulatory Clinic	8 weeks
Electives	12-16 weeks*

PGY-3

The third year resident has abundant elective time to self-direct education toward career goals. The senior resident continues to acquire complex medical and technical skills, while providing support to the first and second year residents.

Medicine Teaching Service	8-12 weeks
Critical Care Teaching Service	4 weeks
Pulmonary Teaching Service	4 weeks
Cardiology Teaching Service	4 weeks
Ambulatory Clinic	8 weeks
Electives	20-24 weeks*

Elective requirements to be completed prior to graduation:

4 weeks Endocrinology	2-4 weeks Nephrology
4 weeks Gastroenterology	2-4 weeks Neurology
4 weeks Geriatrics	2-4 weeks Rheumatology
4 weeks Hematology/Oncology	2 weeks Research
(2 weeks inpatient & 2 wks outpatient)

Recommended but not required: 2 weeks Dermatology